

PROJECT TEAM

Charles Small and Will Batson of Diversified Development, Inc. are two of the principal owners of the Whaley Row townhouse project. They combined have over 40 years of experience in the development and construction of real estate—both in Residential and Commercial projects.

Will Batson and Peggy Small will head the marketing team for the Whaley Row project. They have been involved with the planning and design of Whaley Row from its initial concept. They have achieved a high level of quality construction and functional floor plans for the homes. They are excited to be able to offer such an exceptional development in the downtown area.

ARCHITECTURAL TEAM

The Architectural firm for this project is Heaner, Inc.; Chip Funderburk, PE and Jim Steverson, AIA are responsible for the design of Whaley Row. They are located in Greenwood, South Carolina.

BUILDER TEAM

C.F. Evans & Company, Inc. is a construction company located in Orangeburg, South Carolina; they have been in business since 1948. Johnny Evans is the President and CFO of the company; he possesses nearly 30 years of hands-on experience and is skilled in the means and methods of construction. They will serve as the General Contractor for the homes in Whaley Row.

C.F. Evans & Company, Inc. has an extensive building background in the construction of housing, banks, churches, schools and office buildings.

They are committed to quality building and customer satisfaction. They work with subcontractors that have the expertise and resources to finish their projects in a timely and high quality manner.